DIOCESAN PRAYER DIARY

God promises us in His Word that He hears every word that we pray to Him. Like a good parent, He is waiting, ready, and willing to listen to our worries, concerns, and needs.

The Diocesan Prayer Diary lists the names of those, who are serving the mission of Newcastle Anglican, across the Central Coast, Hunter Region and Mid North Coast. These people need your prayers and God's strength to continue serving this mission and the people they support.

All you need to do is open to the page with the day of the month, read the names and pray. God hears your prayers and your heart.

Thank you for taking the time to pray for the team at Newcastle Anglican and their families.

A close-up photograph of two hands held up in a gesture of prayer or offering. The hands are positioned with palms facing each other, fingers pointing upwards. The skin tone is dark, and the lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the skin and the lines on the palms. The background is a plain, light color.

"The Lord said to him, 'I have heard your prayer and your plea, which you made before me; I have consecrated this house that you have built, and put my name there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.'".

A person's hands are raised in prayer, palms facing up, against a background of a sunset sky with soft, colorful clouds. The hands are positioned in the lower left and center of the frame, with the arms extending upwards. The sky transitions from a warm orange near the horizon to a pale blue at the top. The overall mood is peaceful and spiritual.

"Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

Pray then in this way:
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come.

Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."
